4. Compliance Officer and his Role

The Company has appointed the Company Secretary, as the Compliance Officer for the purposes of this Code, who shall work subject to guidance of the Chairman and the Board of Directors.

The Compliance Officer shall report on insider trading to the Board of Directors of the Company and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee at such frequency as may be stipulated by the Board of Directors from time to time but not less than once in a year.

The Compliance Officer shall assist all persons in addressing any clarifications regarding the Insider Trading Regulations and this Code.

5. Trading when in Possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information

No insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information:

Explanation –When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession.

Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances as defined in the Insider Trading regulations.

6. Trading Plan

An insider, who may be perpetually in possession of UPSI, in order to plan for trades to be executed in future, shall formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

Trading plan shall:

- (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- (ii) not entail trading for the period between the 20th (twentieth) trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which quarterly results and annual result are required to be announced by the company and the 2nd (second) trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- (iii) Entail trading for a period of not less than 12 (twelve) months.
- (iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- (v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- (vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

The Compliance officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any UPSI and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation.

The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such UPSI becomes generally available information.

The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and it shall be mandatorily have to be implemented and without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

Upon approval of the trading plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

7. Trading Window

Designated persons may execute trades subject to compliance with this code and Insider Trading regulations. Towards this end, a notional trading window shall be used as an instrument of monitoring trading by the designated persons.

The trading period, i.e. the trading period during which securities of the Company can be traded on the stock exchanges, called 'trading window', The trading window shall be closed during the time the price sensitive information is un-published.

All Designated persons and their immediate relatives shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not trade during the periods when the trading window is closed.

The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company.

Closure of Trading Window

The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the designated persons of the Company when he determines that designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of UPSI. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such UPSI relates.

The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the UPSI in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than 48 (forty-eight) hours after the information becomes generally available.

Trading restriction period shall be made applicable from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results.

The trading window norms shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

The gap between clearance of accounts by audit committee and board meeting should be as narrow as possible and preferably on the same day to avoid leakage of material information.

8. Pre-Clearance of Trade(s)

All designated persons who intend to trade in the securities of Company (either in their own name or in any immediate relative's name) i.e. buy or sell securities and if the value of the securities likely to be traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of 10 Lakhs (Rupees Ten Lakhs only), should pre-clear the transactions by making an application in the format set out in Annexure A to the Compliance Officer.

The application shall indicate the estimated number of units of securities that the designated person or immediate relative(s) intends to trade, the details as to the depository with which(s) he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as specified in the form and also declare that the applicant is not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

No designated person shall apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed.

The Compliance Officer shall also determine whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.

All designated persons of the Company and their immediate relatives shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within seven trading days after the approval of pre-clearance is given. If the order is not executed within seven trading days after the approval is given, the person must obtain the pre-clearance for the transaction again.

The pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan under clause 6 of this Code.

9. Holding Period

The designated persons who are permitted to trade as above shall not enter into a contra trade i.e. sell or buy any number of securities during the next 6 (six) months following the prior transaction. The designated persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the securities of Company at any time.

The Compliance Officer may be empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restrictions for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate the regulations.

In case a contra trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the applicable law. Provided that this shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options and trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

10. Statutory Disclosures

(i) Initial Disclosures.

Every person on appointment as a Key Managerial Personnel or a director of the Company or upon becoming a promoter or member of the promoter group shall disclose his holding of securities of the Company as on the date of appointment or becoming a promoter, to the company within seven days of such appointment or becoming a promoter.

(ii) Continual Disclosure

- a) Every promoter, member of promoter group, designated person, and director of the Company shall disclose to the Company the number of such securities acquired or disposed of within 2 (two) trading days of such transaction if the value of the securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of 10 Lakhs (Rupees Ten lakhs) or such other value as maybe specified in “Form C” enclosed as Annexure C;
- b) Company shall notify the particulars of such trading to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within 2 (two) trading days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

Explanation — It is clarified for the avoidance of doubts that the disclosure of the incremental transactions after any disclosure under this sub-regulation, shall be made when the transactions effected after the prior disclosure cross the threshold specified in clause 10(ii)(a) of this code.

(iii) Designated Persons shall be required to forward the details of the transactions in securities of the Company made by them and /or their dependent family members within 10 days from end of each half year (i.e. September 30 and March 31) in the “Form D” enclosed as Annexure D.

In the event of there are no transactions in the Company's shares or nil shareholding during a half year, a NIL return would also be required to be filed by the concerned designated persons.

The disclosures as mentioned above, may be sent in hard copy to the Compliance Officer or alternately send a scanned copy of the same, duly filed in all respect and signed, may be sent through email at compliance@telgeprojects.com

- (iv) Designated persons shall be required to disclose names and Permanent Account Number, or any other identifier authorized by law of the following persons to the Company on an annual basis and as and when the information changes:
- a. immediate relatives
 - b. persons with whom such designated person(s) shares a material financial relationship
 - c. Phone and mobile numbers which are used by them.

In addition, the names of educational institutions from which designated persons have graduated and names of their past employers shall also be disclosed on a one time basis.

Explanation – The term “material financial relationship” shall mean a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift during the immediately preceding twelve months, equivalent to at least 25% of such payer’s annual income but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm’s length transactions.

11. Chinese Wall

To prevent the misuse of confidential information, Company has laid down Chinese Walls procedures which separate those areas of Company that routinely have access to confidential information, considered "inside areas" from those which deal with sale/marketing/investment advice or other departments providing support services, considered "public areas".

- (i) The employees in the inside area shall not communicate any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to anyone in public area.
- (ii) The Company shall have process of maintaining securely, computer files containing confidential information and physical storage of documents relating to UPSI.
- (iii) All the unpublished price sensitive information is to be handled on “need to know basis”, i.e. UPSI should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.
- (iv) All the non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department. In exceptional circumstances employees from the public areas may be brought "over the wall" and given confidential information on the basis of "need to know" criteria, under intimation to the Compliance Officer.

- (v) The board of directors shall ensure that a structured digital database is maintained containing the names of such persons or entities as the case may be with whom information is shared under this regulation along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such databases shall be maintained with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.
- (vi) The structured digital database is preserved for a period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions and in the event of receipt of any information from the Board regarding any investigation or enforcement proceedings, the relevant information in the structured digital database shall be preserved till the completion of such proceedings.

12. Penal Provision

Without prejudice to the power of the SEBI, under the SEBI Act, the Board at its discretion may take any disciplinary actions, including wage freeze, suspension, recovery, claw back etc., that may be imposed on the Person(s) for the contravention of this Code.

13. Code Review

The Code shall be periodically reviewed and brought in conformity with statutory and regulatory requirements, as and when required.

14. Interpretation

In any circumstance where the provisions of this Code differ from any existing or newly enacted law, rule, regulation or standard governing the Company, the relevant law, rule, regulation or standard will take precedence over this Code until this Code is changed to conform to the said law, rule, regulation or standard.

15. Disclosure

The Code, as amended from time to time, is disclosed on Company's website i.e. www.telgeprojects.com
